

We want all the Alentejo in our sight
 We want to go through fields and valleys
 We want to climb the hills and conquer castles
 We want to find flocks and shepherds
 We want to hear all the silences
 We want the floral scents of spring
 We want the brown autumn tones
 We can have it all
 We can have more than that
 We can see all Alentejo
 Or just think that we can
 Marvão and Castelo de Vide are special
 Places where the Alentejo touches the sky
 Places where every walker feels the sky
 Where each step takes us further
 And higher

Portugal Walking Festival ALENTEJO FEEL NATURE Marvão . Castelo de Vide 16.17.18.October.2015

The Alto Alentejo presents itself as a land of sublime landscapes with very diverse relief from the flat areas of grassland and floodplains, to the highest elevation in the Serra de São Mamede.

The traces of a rich heritage and immaterial culture that find themselves in each village and in the rural fields around, are a valuable treasure of many settlers have chosen this region as your local host.

This is an excellent destination for the practice of nature and eco tourism and the Walking are one of the main attractions within a well infrastructured network of paths in different municipalities, supported the initiative PROVERE InMotion - Alentejo Feel Nature. With this network you can create programs of several days of hiking, getting to know a region that has remained authentic and almost secret in their natural spaces.

The Portugal Walking Festival - Alentejo Feel Nature is a good reason to know this territory, so we invite you to do Marvão and Castelo de Vide your leisure destinations in the month of October 2015.

Accept this invitation and put your feet on the way!

Alentejo Feel Nature, of course.
